

News Release from Informed Choice

Catriona Lumiste joins Informed Choice

Date: 3rd January 2012

Informed Choice, the award-winning firm of Chartered Financial Planners in Surrey, is pleased to announce the appointment of Catriona Lumiste as a Financial Planner.

Catriona joins Informed Choice from another IFA firm, bringing the total number of Financial Planners at Informed Choice to nine.

Informed Choice managing director Martin Bamford commented on the appointment:

"We are delighted to welcome Catriona to the team as we continue to grow the business and take advantage of the opportunities created by the Retail Distribution Review.

"This is set to be another record year for Informed Choice, as we continue to focus on our clients and professional connections. We plan to add one more Financial Planner to our team in 2012, as we cater for the growing demand from clients for our advisory and Financial Planning proposition."

Catriona Lumiste was the 12th female IFA to be awarded the ISO 22222 Certified Financial Planner status through Standards International. She has a particular expertise working with female clients to assist them with the pension and financial aspects of divorce.
